

THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME AUSTRALIA

Cultural DeCoding

The University of Notre Dame Australia invites the gifted and talented students from your school, who will be in Year 11 and 12 next year to participate in the 2019 program of Cultural DeCoding.

29-31 January 2019, from 9am until 3.30pm

This three-day experience will help unlock the ideas that define who we are.

With a mixture of art, archaeology, history, philosophy, theology, this experience will intellectually challenge and enrich your mind to prepare you for further study.

Join us on our Campus in Fremantle to DeCode aspects of the past, present and future. Principals, parents and teachers are invited to join us for our closing ceremony and afternoon tea on Thursday 31 January at 3.30pm.

Morning tea and lunch provided. Numbers are limited and applications are accepted on a first-come-first-served basis. Some assistance may be possible for non-metro students.

Cost for this event is $220 per student, book online at notredame.edu.au/culturaldecoding

For further information please contact the School of Philosophy & Theology:

fremantle.philosophytheology@nd.edu.au or 9433 0138

Brought to you by Notre Dame's School of Philosophy & Theology

