VOLUNTARY APPROVED REQUESTS (the school does not receive funding for these services and relies on parent contributions). To assist in meeting the cost of other services offered to students, the school requests parents to contribute to:

- Reprographics: provides for school/parent/student communication with the schools interim reports to parents, academic reports semester 1 and 2, student course information booklets, selection forms and Schools Newsletter.
- Library: provides for a wide range of library and resource material, such as reference books, CD's, magazines and articles. Subsidies cost of library card for every student.
- Health and Student Services: Provides for purchase and cleaning of loan pool clothing conforming to the school dress code. Additional medical supplies including cold packs, first aid, student reward activities and peer support.
- P&C Association: provides annual membership of the Parents and Citizens Association and a contribution towards school programs.
- Chaplaincy: provides a contribution towards the salary of the school Chaplain. The chaplaincy is an essential component of the pastoral care provision to students within the Student Services centre.
- Building Fund: provides a contribution towards improvements to school buildings and grounds. (The amount is tax deductible) eg. Canteen quad, outdoor classroom.
